Archival Collections

A number of our archival collections relate to St. Tammany Parish, including the following:

- David Bannister Morgan papers, 1814-1849. Manuscripts Collection 624
Morgan lived in St. Tammany Parish; the collection includes documents related to land and slave sales in St. Tammany Parish in the 1820s.

- Brewster H. Jayne letter, 1817. Manuscripts Collection M-242
Letter from Brewster H. Jayne in Covington, Louisiana to Selah B. Strong in New York concerning Jayne's personal affairs in Louisiana, his rivalry with Thomas Mills, and great possibilities for self-advancement found in the state.

- Dr. Boris Weinstein Levy family collection, predominantly 1970s-1980s. Manuscripts Collection 1076

The collection consists predominately of genealogical research pertaining to the Levy family in Mandeville, Louisiana. Related families include the Kahn, Greenblatt, Joseph, and other families of New Orleans and Mandeville. The first box includes photographs of Levy family members, their store and their butcher shop.

- Cruzat family papers, 1686-1961. Manuscripts Collection 249
The collection is made up of family papers (1674-1939), letters, copies of letters and documents, historical notes, and genealogical material of Marie Cruzat de Verges. Some of the families represented in the collection include the Hulse, Cruzat, and Innerarity families, as well as the East Florida trading firm of Panton, Leslie, Forbes & Company, with which the Inneraritys were associated. There are copies of letters of and relating to Philippe de Marigny de Mandeville and Bernarde de Marigny. There is also a group of articles, notes, and other information about the history of New Orleans and Louisiana.

- George Moorman papers, 1862-1891. Manuscripts Collection 642

The collection consists of correspondence, legal documents, Confederate memorabilia, certificates, flyers, pamphlets, reports, photocopies of newspaper clippings, and reunion notices that pertain to the political, business, and civic activities of George Moorman (1841-1902). Moorman served as president of the Louisiana State Immigration Association, was mayor of Mandeville, and was appointed United States Marshal for the New Orleans district by President Cleveland.

- de Marigny family papers, 1728-1917. Manuscripts Collection 416

This collection contains personal documents for the de Marigny family, which had extensive land holdings in St. Tammany Parish. Documents include baptismal and death certificates, a family tree, and memoirs on the de Marigny family. All documents are written in French but English translations are provided.

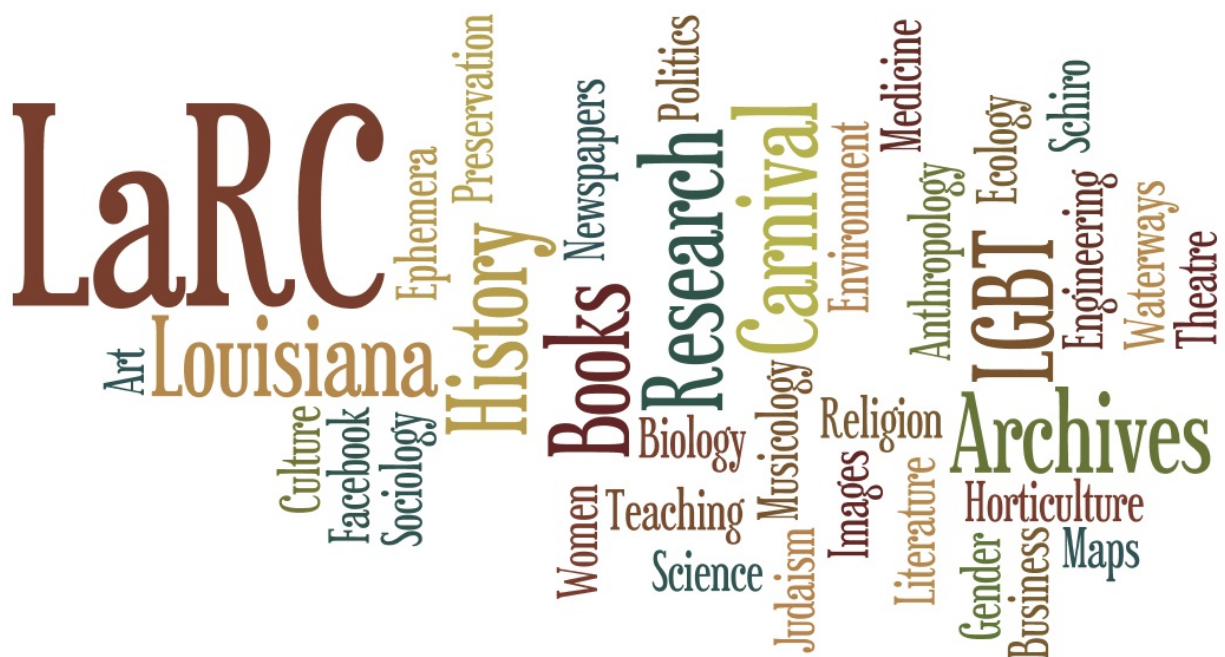

- Hamilton Basso letter, 1927. Manuscripts Collection M-390

Letter from Hamilton Basso and his friend Eugene Matranga in Abita Springs, Louisiana in which he proposes the idea of building a cabin adjoining Mr. Matranga's preoperty and hibernating there to devote himself to writing. He speaks of the need to remove himself from "the temptations of flesh and the devil" as there are innumerable things he wants to write.
